

General Listing of Plays and Musicals on LDS Subjects

This is a listing only -- a compendium of titles. No production rights are held by Zion Theatricals unless indicated by the placement of (Zion Theatricals) after the listing.

KEY: Title – authors (where performance rights are available)

(See the links to other websites at the end of the document.)

An LDS Play is one that features LDS characters, doctrine, history, or contemporary LDS situations, or is taken from Scripture. This list is intended to contain the title of every LDS play or musical that has been published or produced -- ever -- and where they might be found or made available for reading and/or production. At present it is not -- yet. If you have additions, let me know.

I will be happy to add to this list. editor@ziontheatricals.com

Some of the plays & musicals listed herein as being available at Encore/Eldridge are not currently on their site. They have decided to no longer publish plays for LDS audiences. We are currently contacting authors to see where the publishing and performance rights are held. We update this listing periodically.

TWO QUOTES BY BRIGHAM YOUNG:

"If I were placed on a cannibal island and given the task of civilizing its people," Brigham Young reportedly said, "I should straightway build a theatre for the purpose."

The second quote was given at the Dedication of the Salt Lake Theatre: Said Brigham Young, "Upon the stage of a theater can be represented in character, evil and its consequences, good and its happy results and rewards; the weakness and the follies of man, the magnanimity of virtue and the greatness of truth. The stage can be made to aid the pulpit in impressing upon the minds of a community an enlightened sense of a virtuous life, also a proper horror of the enormity of sin and a just dread of its consequences. The path of sin with its thorns and pitfalls, its gins and snares can be revealed, and how to shun it." (Discourses of Brigham Young, p.243; Bookcraft, 1998)
